Purpose

Background - Analysis and Options

The organization recently went through a series of facilitated sessions with Council, senior management and staff to review the Vaughan Vision 2020 Corporate values with the goal of bringing clarity and better defining the values which were developed as part of the strategic plan in 2007. These values included; leadership, innovation, fairness, respect, inclusivity, integrity, transparency, and accountability. As a result of the consultation sessions three values are recommended for approval, Accountability, Respect and Dedication.

Council/SMT/Directors Workshops

At the Strategic Planning Committee meeting on May 11, 2009 a report was tabled which presented the facilitated discussions on Corporate values led by David Cohen from Strategic Action Group from the April 1-2, 2009 Council/SMT Symposium workshop and the May 1, 2009 SMT/Directors workshop.

The format for the workshops were roundtable discussions on the Corporate values reviewing what the values were and what would be the attributes associated with each value. In this way there would be a clear articulation of the desired behaviours for values which in turn would be critical information to be communicated to all levels of the organization to ensure consistent understanding and application of the values. It would also provide a clear understanding of the expectations regarding each value.

Staff Workshops

The May 11, 2009 Strategic Planning Committee and approved by Council on May 26, 2009 recommended:

“That staff be directed to continue with the focus groups and report back in September 2009”

To get buy-in for the values which were proposed it was important to get input from staff across the organization. Thus, a total of four separate half day workshops were scheduled with staff on July 10 and 21, 2009. This included a workshop with managers and three half day workshops with staff and supervisors. Over 150 staff were involved in the workshops.

The format for the staff workshop was to go through a similar exercise as was used in the previous workshops with Council and the senior management team. The Deputy City Manager provided opening comments to each workshop to provide a context for the workshop and stress the importance of staff input. The rest of workshop included reviewing the Vaughan Vision 2020 values and determining what are values and some attributes for each value. Participants were then led through a facilitated session to come to agreement as to what should be the values.

As can be seen in Attachment 1, staff identified with respect, accountability, integrity and fairness as the values. Staff were then taken through a facilitated discussion to probe the rationale behind identifying these values. It was discussed that since one demonstrates integrity by living all of the values that it alone was not a value. Further discussion also revealed that fairness and respect were closely related values that shared similar attributes and therefore respect could be identified as one of the values.

Staff also felt that excellence was not a value and that instead dedication and/or passion should replace excellence. Further, discussion with SMT resulted in dedication being proposed as a value in place of excellence. Also, it was determined that integrity should be identified as part of an overarching statement for example, “we will demonstrate integrity by living the three values of Accountability, Respect and Dedication.”

Attachment 2 identifies the attributes associated with the values, Accountability, Respect and Dedication. Defining the attributes will help to provide a common language for all staff to understand the expectations associated with each value.

Rollout Plan

The rollout plan for the Corporate values will be critical to ensure that all staff is aware of the values, the corresponding attributes and also to facilitate discussion across City departments as to what is expected. The following steps are recommended:

Item 1, StratPlan Report No. 3 – Page 3

1. After approval of the values at Council, a half day SMT/Directors workshop be scheduled to review and discuss the Corporate values and staff rollout plan. The session would include reviewing the approved values and attributes and discussing the staff rollout plan. Specifically how to develop a plan which engages staff and how it relates to service delivery. Feedback from this meeting will be incorporated into the final rollout plan which will be communicated to staff.- Facilitated by Strategic Action Group Q4/09

Review how the values can be incorporated into the day-to-day work environment i.e. decision making, performance management, recruitment etc.

2. Schedule meetings with the Commissioner, Director and staff in each department to review the Corporate values and the process for subsequent manager-work team meetings. -Senior Manager of Strategic Planning to coordinate Q4/09-Q1/10
3. Managers will meet with their staff on a regular basis to discuss the Corporate values and attributes and share examples of the values at work in the department- Q2/10 and beyond.
4. Develop a mechanism to provide follow up on whether the values are being followed and identify any gaps in the roll out process between managers and staff. -Senior Manager of Strategic Planning to coordinate Q2/10

The key to success in implementation will be to focus on an internal rollout and establishing a mechanism to evaluate whether departments are adhering to the values. Feedback from staff on how well the organization is following the values will be important information to ensure the values are relevant and meaningful.

Relationship to Vaughan Vision 2020/Strategic Plan

The Vaughan Vision 2020 Corporate values are included in the Corporation's strategic plan.

Conclusion

The Vaughan Vision 2020 corporate values are a key element in the strategic plan and should be used to guide the organization in its decision making process. Thus, it is recommended that the three core values and associated attributes of Accountability, Respect and Dedication be approved. Upon approval the proposed rollout plan will be implemented. Please note Mr. Cohen will be in attendance at the meeting to respond to any questions.

CITY OF VAUGHAN

Background - Analysis and Options

The Council Priorities Plan 2009 was approved by Council at its meeting on February 3, 2009. At the Strategic Planning Committee meeting on May 11, 2009 a communications strategy was discussed which contained activities such as website news stories for each initiative, a quarterly report template for each initiative tabled at Committee of the Whole (Working Session) meetings, and quarterly news releases. It was proposed in the communication plan that a Council Priorities Plan Newsletter could be created and sent to all households, however it was noted that budget funds were not allocated to this initiative. Subsequently, the Committee asked that costing information be gathered and tabled at a future meeting.

There are three feasible delivery options available for distribution of the proposed Council Priorities Plan Newsletter which includes Canada Post, the Recreation and Culture Guide and an electronic newsletter.

Option 1

This option utilizes Canada Post to deliver the newsletter to approximately 78,000 households including apartments and condominiums. However since it is delivered with other flyers and mail, the newsletter may be overlooked or lost.

Option 2

This option includes the newsletter as an insert with the Recreation and Culture Guide. This option was utilized with the 2008 Successes Report. This Guide is produced bi-annually (February and August) and sent to all households. Note that the August 2009 Guide has been produced and the next Guide will be published in February 2010. The advantage of this option is that many households use the Guide which is delivered in a sealed clear plastic bag and as a result is less likely to be discarded. The total circulation is approximately 71,000, however the company does not deliver to apartments and condominiums.

Option 3

With this option the newsletter would be distributed by email, to the 4,000 citizens who have signed up to receive information from the City using electronic distribution. As well, each individual Member of Council could also send the information as part of their e-newsletter. Under this option the newsletter would be designed internally and there would be no additional cost to produce it other than staff resources.

The costs illustrated above were gathered from three different printing company quotes and then averaged. Distributing the newsletter electronically is the most cost effective option. A hard copy of the newsletter distributed with the Recreation & Culture Guide is the second most cost effective option.

Also, guest speakers have been engaged on workplace engagement and communication, trends and emerging issues in the government sector. The focus of the 2010 workshop will be to discuss progress on implementing key strategic initiatives and roundtable discussions to update a scan of organizational strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats.

It is recommended that the 2010 Council/SMT symposium/workshop be a one day session held at a location in the City of Vaughan. Following approval, cost quotations for appropriate locations will be brought forward to the November 16, 2009 Strategic Planning Committee.
