EXTRACT FROM COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES OF MAY 4, 2010

Item 1, CW(Closed) Report No. 18 – Page 2

Ms Giustizia is also an outspoken advocate for educational reforms and community needs. She continues to fight for the rights of anaphylactic children at the Ontario Human Rights Commission in the face of institutional inertia and reaction, such as the removal of accommodations for anaphylactic children once put in place. Indeed, her work has inspired others across the province, Canada, and in the United States to take up the cause of anaphylactic children, in and out of schools. Over and above this important issue, Ms Giustizia is an active volunteer in her community, besides serving four terms as chair of the parent council of her children's school.
