RENAMING OF THE BEVSHIRE PARKETTE

Recommendation

Councillor Kadis recommends that as per the park renaming policy # 04.5.05 the Bevshire Parkette be renamed Rebbetzin Judy Taub Memorial Parkette in honor of the late, beloved Rebbetzin Judy Taub;

And that funds for new signage, plaque, benches etc. will be donated by private individuals and businesses;

And that staff assist in organizing a park dedication ceremony to take place in Spring 2003.

Background - Analysis and Options

This resolution comes as a result of a request from Mr. Jack Feintuch, a resident of Thornhill. In the Fall of 1981 Rebbetzin Judy Taub opened her home as the first, temporary Beth Avraham Yoseph of Toronto Congregation. Her guidance, inspiration and volunteer spirit laid the foundation for the 12 original member families to grow into the 750 member families that today represent the largest Jewish House of worship in Thornhill, Vaughan.
