

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE - NOVEMBER 18, 2002

STAFF ELECTED AS PRESIDENT OF THE ASSOCIATION OF MUNICIPAL TAX COLLECTORS OF ONTARIO

Recommendation

The Commissioner of Finance & Corporate Services in consultation with the Director of Finance recommends:

That Council endorse the appointment of Grace L. Marsh, Manager of Property Tax & Assessment, to the office of President in the Association of Municipal Tax Collectors of Ontario (AMTCO) for the 2002/2003 term.

Purpose

To inform Council and request their support in recognizing Grace Marsh's new role as President of the AMTCO.

Background - Analysis and Options

Grace Marsh has been a contributing member of the AMTCO for the past four years, most recently as the 1st Vice-President. Elections were conducted at the 35th Annual AMTCO meeting and Grace was elected as the President for the 2002/2003 term.

Grace will be in a leadership role with the AMTCO by liaising with peer organizations and provincial ministries in matters of significant concern to municipalities and local taxpayers, which include legislation, regulations and assessment/taxation policy. In addition it will raise the profile of the City of Vaughan in the municipal sector.

Conclusion

Council's support for Grace's new responsibilities in the Association, including the necessary funding for attendance at meetings, etc. is appreciated.
