

COUNCIL MEETING – SEPTEMBER 8, 2003

OCTOBER 2, 2003 PROVINCIAL ELECTION
COUNCILLOR MARIO G. RACCO
WAIVER OF SALARY

Recommendation

Councillor Mario G. Racco recommends that the following resolution be approved:

Whereas Councillor Mario G. Racco has announced his intention to run in the October 2, 2003 Provincial Election;

And Whereas Councillor Mario G. Racco has clearly expressed his continuing commitment to his current municipal office and as a member of Vaughan Council throughout the Provincial campaign;

Now Therefore be it resolved that Councillor Mario G. Racco has advised staff that he will waive his Council salary, effective September 2, 2003, (the date the Provincial Election was called), up to and including the October 2, 2003 election day;

And accordingly that staff make the necessary arrangements to have his salary withheld during this time period.

Dear Michael,

With this letter I wish to make my intentions clear that I intend to forgo my salary up to and including Thursday, October 2, 2003.

I wish further to make clear that I will continue to live up to the commitments of my municipal office throughout the provincial campaign, including but not limiting to attend council meetings, committee meetings and deal with all ward issues. I will remain an active and contributing member of Vaughan Council.

Thank you,

Mario G. Racco
Councillor
